MTA New York City Transit's Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at Brooklyn'S Myrtle-Wyckoff Avenues Station Complex

Join MTA Executive Director and CEO Elliot G. Sander, MTA NYC Transit President Howard H. Roberts, Jr., Brigid Hynes Cherin, FTA Region 2 Administrator and other MTA and elected officials as they cut the ribbon on the new station house for the Myrtle-Wyckoff Avenues LM station complex. The new station house will bring a much improved, customer-friendly environment for subway customers with convenient, 24-hour, street-level access and a significantly improved transfer between the Myrtle Avenue subway station serving the L line and the elevated Wyckoff Avenue station serving the M line.

WHEN: Thursday, April, 19, 2007
TIME: 11 a.m.
WHERE: Bushwick section of Brooklyn at the Myrtle-Wyckoff Avenues LM Station Complex
