From Fruit to Vine and More; MTA LIRR Getaway on Sept. 22

The MTA Long Island Rail Road "Vineyard Harvest" on Saturday, September 22, is one terrific way to spend the last day of summer.

A country farm, picturesque village and winery are all included in a one day visit to Long Island's scenic North Fork. The first stop, at Wickham's Fruit Farm, includes a guided tour of the orchard on a hayride. Participants can pick their own apples and take them home (included in the price). Delicious homemade items including donuts and pies can also be purchased. At the next stop, Greenport village, a former whaling port, the East End Seaport Maritime Museum is one of many popular destinations sure to pique the interest of participants. The final stop is Palmer Vineyards where some of the best local wines available can be sampled. There's a 20% discount on wine purchases for tour participants.

The cost is $42 for adults, $30 for children 5-11. This getaway is also offered on October 20.
