New MTA LIRR Getaway Goes to Long Island's "Riviera" July 28

A new MTA Long Island Rail Road getaway travels to the area formerly known as Long Island's Riviera. The "Southampton Escape" Getaway on Saturday, July 28, begins with a bus ride that winds through the Southampton Estates section on the way to the first stop at St. Andrew's Dune Church, the only Long Island church situated on the bluffs overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. The church's unusual architecture is complemented by its Tiffany-designed windows.

The next stop is the Southampton Historical Museum. Its artifacts and documents bring to life the traditions of Long Island's South Fork. Well-informed guides can provide ideas where to go in town for lunch and leisure. While in town participants can visit the Parrish Art Museum, included in the price of the tour, where prominent local artists have their works on display. There are special exhibits as well as peaceful shaded gardens. The cost is $38 for adults, $30 for children 5-11.
