New MTA LIRR "Sunday Brunch Cruise" Promises a Relaxing Day on the Water July 1

The MTA Long Island Rail Road has the perfect way to tame a hot summer day, a relaxing cruise on the Great South Bay and a visit to picturesque Sayville.

The new "Sunday Brunch Cruise" on Sunday, July 1, features a delightful ride aboard the Lauren Kristy, where participants will have great views of Fire Island and Long Island's South Shore while gliding along the Great South Bay. During the cruise, local experts will discuss the history of the area including the port of Bay Shore, the Gateway to Fire Island, and the communities of Islip, East Islip, Great River and Oakdale. Among the sites will be the 19th century mansion of the "Sugar King," Frederick Bourne. A tasty brunch will be served on-board while enjoying the sights of the Fire Island National Seashore. After lunch, the Lauren Kristy will dock at Sayville where participants can walk off their sea legs as they window shop at the many boutiques, grab a bite at a local café or relax in the local park.

This getaway is also offered on August 19. The cost is $64 for adults, $59 for children 5-11.
