Weekend FG Service Disruptions For March 1-3 Weekend

MTA NYC Transit announced that work will continue on the Bergen Street (FG) signal project during the upcoming weekend, March 1-3. Free shuttle bus service will replace FG trains between Hoyt-Schermerhorn Sts. and 7th Avenue stations in Brooklyn, beginning 12:01 a.m. Saturday and continuing to 5 a.m. Monday.

F trains are running between 4th Avenue (Brooklyn) and Coney Island-Stillwell Avenue and between Jamaica-179th Street (Queens) and Jay Street (Brooklyn), where it replaces the C and continues to Euclid Avenue.

The best way for Brooklyn customers to reach Manhattan is to take the F to 4th Avenue-9th Street and transfer to a Manhattan-bound D running on the local track to West 4th Street. The best way for Manhattan customers to reach Brooklyn is to take the F to West 4th Street and transfer to a Brooklyn-bound D to 4th Avenue-9th Street. Customers can then transfer to a shuttle bus to 7th Avenue where F service to Coney Island is available.

Brooklyn 4th Avenue line customers should note that the D train will be operating on the R track along 4th Avenue making all local stops between the Atlantic Avenue-Pacific Street and 36th Street stations.
