Metro-North Extra Trains for Giants Parade

On Tuesday, February 5, MTA Metro-North Railroad will operate its regular weekday schedule with two extra trains, one on the Hudson Line and one on the Harlem Line, to accommodate any additional customers wishing to attend the victory parade celebrating the NY Giants' Super Bowl victory in lower Manhattan.

On the Hudson Line there will be an 8:41 a.m. departure from Poughkeepsie serving New Hamburg, Beacon, and Peekskill and arriving in Grand Central at 10:11 a.m. On the Harlem Line there will be an 8:28 a.m. departure from Southeast serving Brewster, Goldens Bridge, Katonah, Mount Kisco, North White Plains and White Plains and arriving at Grand Central at 9:46 a.m.

There will be two additional afternoon trains departing Grand Central on the Hudson Line: a 2:36 p.m. departure serving Beacon, New Hamburg, and Poughkeepsie; and a 3:25 p.m. departure that will run express to Croton-Harmon.

On the New Haven Line, which is far more limited in terms of train equipment, the railroad will provide additional train cars as equipment becomes available

Fans are urged to buy a round-trip ticket at their home stations to make the trip faster and less expensive. For more information at the website at www.mta.info or by calling 800-METRO-INFO. The hearing impaired may call-via teleprinter-800-724-3322.
