Take Metro-North's Santa Express For Holiday Fun

Climb aboard a merry Metro-North train—reserved just for you—and you'll see why Santa likes his reindeer, but loves MTA Metro-North Railroad. Join Santa on his holiday excursion on Saturday, December 13 and find out why Santa himself says that this is best in holiday travel.

Besides meeting and greeting old St. Nick, you get to visit with his merry helpers and receive a special holiday goody bag.

And the train trip carries you on the historic Hudson Line to Tarrytown and then back to glorious Grand Central Terminal, where there's so much to do and see from the spectacular Holiday Kaleidoscope Light Show that runs every half hour in the Main Concourse to the Holiday Fair with its unique vendors in Vanderbilt Hall to the Transit Museum with its fascinating display of model trains.

Two Santa Express Trains will depart Grand Central at 11:15 a.m. and 2:05 p.m. Coach fares are $15 for adults, $10 for children 11 years and under. Tickets can only be purchased online at www.mta.info. Go to the Metro-North Railroad homepage, select Travel, go to Group Travel and click on Special Excursions.

Tickets purchased after December 8 will be held at the train's departure gate #34 in Grand Central.
