LIRR One-Day Getaways To Wine Country And Cruisin' On The Sound Make July 12-13 Weekend One To Go On A "Stay-Cation"

Staying close to home but enjoying what Long Island has to offer is the aim of many area residents this season. The MTA Long Island Rail Road has two perfect "stay-cations" for this weekend. On Saturday, July 12, the "Wine Country Getaway" offers a day trip to Long Island's North Fork wine country and three wineries. The Sunday, July 13, "Cruisin' On The Sound" Getaway includes a visit to Port Jefferson and an afternoon cruising Long Island Sound to Bridgeport, Connecticut.

The "Wine Country" Getaway on Saturday, July 12, begins with a stop at Bedell Cellars Wineries in Cutchogue where the wine making process is on display from vine to bottle to sampling the product. Next up is the Corey Creek Vineyards where the beautiful scenery complements a great day away. The seaport village of Greenport is the next stop where a late lunch can be purchased. The final destination for the day is the Duck Walk Vineyard tasting room in Cutchogue where seven different varieties of wine can be sampled. The cost of this great "stay-cation" is $44 for adults.
