New Tolls Start Sunday, March 16, 2008

New Tolls Start Sunday, March 16, 2008

Tolls will change for all categories of vehicles on the nine MTA Bridges and Tunnels facilities starting this Sunday, March 16th at 3:00 a.m.

Car tolls for cash customers will go from $4.50 to $5.00 on the Triborough Bridge, Bronx-Whitestone Bridge, Throgs Neck Bridge and the Queens Midtown and Brooklyn-Battery Tunnels. E-ZPass customers on these crossings will pay only

$4.15. The Verrazano-Narrows Bridge one-way toll (Staten Island-bound) goes up from $9.00 to $10.00, $8.30 with E-ZPass. Crossing the Henry Hudson Bridge will cost $2.75 for cash customers and $1.90 for E-ZPass tag holders. Cash customers on the Marine Parkway Cross Bay Bridges will pay $2.50 starting Sunday, while E-ZPass customers pay $1.55. (Resident discounts apply for Rockaway and Staten Island residents.)

Nearly 75 percent of MTA Bridges and Tunnels customers pay their tolls with E-ZPass.

"We have made every effort to ensure that this transition goes as smoothly as possible for our customers, though brief delays may occur in the cash lanes," said MTA Bridges and Tunnels Acting President David Moretti. "As always, we encourage cash customers to sign up for an E-ZPass account—it not only saves money, but time and gas, as well."
