Metro-North Hosts First "Getaway Day" in Grand Central February 18

MTA Metro-North Railroad is pleased to announce the first "Metro-North Getaway Day" in Grand Central Terminal, on Wednesday, February 18, 2009, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Learn about Metro-North's many discounted rail and event packages and enter to win show tickets and promotional gifts from featured Getaway partners including Mohegan Sun Casino, New York Botanical Gardens, Empire City at Yonkers Raceway, Circle Line Cruises, Thunder Ridge Ski Area, the Mid-Hudson Children's Museum and Bruce Museum, in addition to the following shows: "Wizard of Oz" and Broadway's "Mama Mia."

The free event will take place outside the Station Master's Office at the west end of the Upper Level of the Terminal, near track 36. Visit with representatives from these attractions and plan your next getaway.

Metro-North has discounted getaways to some of Manhattan's popular attractions including the Auto and Boat Shows, the New York Ducks, NBC Tours, Grayline Tours and many more.

For city residents and visitors to New York, Metro-North offers day trips to the countryside throughout the counties it serves.

For more information about Metro-North's One-Day Getaways, call 1-800-METRO-INFO or visit www.mta.info.
