Service Advisory: Bus and Subway Delays/Detours During Presidential Visit to Lower Manhattan

President Barack Obama is scheduled to visit Lower Manhattan sometime on Monday, September 14, 2009. As a result, based on instructions from the Secret Service and the New York City Police Department, many local and express bus routes in Lower and Midtown Manhattan are expected to be either delayed or detoured while the President's motorcade travels through the city. In addition, some subway station entrances/exits may be temporarily closed.

Customers are advised to give themselves extra travel time and may call NYC Transit's Travel Information Center at 718-330-1234 between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. daily for help in planning their trips. Riders can also plan travel itineraries online any time of day by visiting NYC Transit's Trip Planner at <http://tripplanner.mta.info/>.
