Get a FREE Long Island Rail Road round-trip ticket for every ticket purchased to see Thomas & Friends Live! On Stage. The LIRR is marking its 175th Anniversary in 2009, but customers are getting the presents. To thank riders for their patronage, the LIRR is offering 175th Anniversary Customer Appreciation Deals. This deal is perfect for train buffs of all ages as Thomas & Friends returns to the Beacon Theatre with an ALL NEW, live musical Adventure: Thomas & Friends Live! On Stage: A Circus Comes to Town.

The 90-minute musical adventure includes brand-new sing-along songs, as well as a colorful cast of circus performers who tell the engaging story of how all the engines on the Island of Sodor prepare for an exciting event under the Big Top. Thomas & Friends™ Live! On Stage: A Circus Comes To Town, demonstrates the importance of friendship and cooperation as it gets young children dancing and singing, creating lifelong memories for them and their families.

By phone – Call Ticketmaster at 1-866-858-0008 and mention code LIRR

As part of the Long Island Railroad's 175th Anniversary Celebration, the LIRR is holding Customer Appreciation Days at various stations with raffle prizes including tickets to shows and sporting events. A previous customer Appreciation Day at Penn Station on February 24th included a raffle for Thomas & Friends Live! and Dora the Explorer. The next giveaway, which is being held today, Wednesday, March 18th, in Penn Station's 34th Street entranceway will include tickets for "The Little Mermaid" and "Mama Mia!"

Customers can enter a business card or fill out a raffle form to win tickets to the shows.

Winners do not have to be present to collect their prizes, which are being provided at no cost to the LIRR by participating sponsors.

For more details about upcoming anniversary celebrations in April, visit the LIRR's website at www.mta.info/lirr. While there, don't forget to sign up for email service alerts.
