Weekend 234 Service Disruptions

For Three Weekends through March 2

MTA NYC Transit announced that there will be service diversions on the 2, 3 and 4 trains in Brooklyn for three weekends: from 11:30 p.m. Friday, February 13 to 5 a.m. Tuesday, February 17; 11:30 p.m. Friday, February 20 to 5 a.m. Monday, February 23 and 11:30 p.m. Friday, February 27 to 5 a.m. Monday, March 2. These service changes are necessary in order to perform switch replacement near Franklin Avenue and to replace portions of the roadbed near President Street.

- The 2 train will operate in two sections: the main branch between Wakefield-241st Street and Franklin Avenue and a shuttle train between Franklin Avenue and Brooklyn College-Flatbush Avenue.
- Free shuttle buses will replace 3 trains between Franklin Avenue and Crown Heights-Utica Avenue. The buses will run along Eastern Parkway making stops at Franklin, Nostrand, Kingston and Utica Avenues. A shuttle train will run between Crown Heights-Utica Avenue and New Lots Avenue.
- The Brooklyn-bound 4 will terminate at Atlantic Avenue. Customers should transfer between the 4 and the 3 at Nevins Street and use the shuttle bus for stops beyond Franklin Avenue.

These service changes affect ADA accessible stations. Customers using wheelchairs are encouraged to plan ahead and call the Accessible Travel Information line at 718-596-8585 or (TTY) 718-596-8273 between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. for help planning their trip.

Customers may visit www.mta.info and click on Service Advisories or call Travel Information at 718-330-1234 for the latest on weekend service changes.
