Extension of X17A Express Bus Route Afternoon Trips are Extended to Arthur Kill Road

MTA NYC Transit announces that effective Monday, June 1, 2009, afternoon trips on the Staten Island X17A express route will be extended from the current terminal on Drumgoole Road West/Annadale Road to Arthur Kill Road/Annadale Road. With this change, X17A buses will now include three stops on Annadale Road currently served during the mornings only. This was done in order to clarify and formalize the proper route and eliminate any confusion for our customers and bus operators. The added bus stops are on Annadale Road at Dorval Avenue, Annadale Road at Token Street and on Arthur Kill Road at Annadale Road.
