ALTERNATE TRANSIT IDEAS FOR LIRR PORT WASHINGTON BRANCH AND OYSTER BAY BRANCH CUSTOMERS

While MTA Long Island Rail Road works to clear the downed trees and power lines that have forced the suspension of train service on the Port Washington Branch and the Oyster Bay Branch, customers are advised to consider the following alternate means of travel and to remember that NYC Transit is cross-honoring LIRR tickets on the #7 subway line.

Port Washington Branch Customers:

Woodside thru Flushing Main St. Stations: Take #7 subway line, which stops at 61st St/Woodside, Willets Point and Flushing/Main Street

Murray Hill Station: Take #7 subway line to Flushing Main St, then the Q-15 bus.

Broadway Station: Take #7 subway line to Flushing Main St, then Q-12 or Q-13 bus

For Auburndale through Manhasset Stations: Take #7 subway line to Flushing Main St, then the N-20 or N-21 bus, which runs along Northern Boulevard

For Plandome & Port Washington Stations: Take LIRR to Mineola and take N-23 bus

Oyster Bay Branch Customers:

East Williston & Albertson Stations: Take LIRR to Mineola and then the N 22 bus.

Roslyn to Mineola Stations: Take the LIRR to Mineola and take the N-23 bus

Greenvale, Glen Head, Sea Cliff, Glen St., Glen Cove & Locust Valley Stations:

Take the LIRR to Hempstead and take the N-27 bus.

Oyster Bay Station: Take the LIRR to Syosset, located a short cab ride from Oyster Bay
