MTA Metro-North Extends the Baseball Season With Service to All Post-Season Games at Yankees Stadium

MTA Metro-North Railroad offers plenty of direct, fast, convenient "train to the game" service for the Yankees' post-season playoff home games beginning this Saturday at 8:37 PM when the Yankees take on the Minnesota Twins in Game 3 of the American League division series.

There is direct service on all three lines, the Hudson, Harlem, and New Haven, as well as frequent shuttle service from Grand Central Terminal and Harlem-125th Street stations, before, during and after the games. Extra trains also will operate on Sunday if there is a Game 4. See below.

On the New Haven Line, there are three direct, "Yankee Clipper" express trains from New Haven, departing at 4:37 PM, 5:26 PM and 5:59 PM and arriving at 6:15 PM, 7:05 PM and 7:42 PM respectively. There is also a train from Stamford that departs at 5:45 PM, makes all local stops and arrives at Yankees – East 153rd street at 6:43 PM.

On the Harlem Line, there are two "Yankee Clipper" trains departing Southeast at 5:05 PM and 6:05 PM that go express after Bronxville and arrive at 6:24 PM and 7:24 PM respectively.

On the Hudson Line, there are 10 southbound trains that arrive at the Yankees-East 153rd Street Station between 5:09 PM and 8:17 PM, PLUS one "Yankee Clipper," a 6 p.m. departure from Poughkeepsie that makes all stops to Croton-Harmon and arrives at the Yankees-East 153rd Street Station at 7:28 PM.

Departures times on all three lines are dependent on when the game ends with trains leaving Yankees – East 153rd Street station anywhere from 20 to 45 minutes after the last out.
