Wintuk Characters to Help Kick Off the Holiday Season at Penn Station; Raffle for Fun Prizes on Wednesday, Nov. 17

Wintuk characters, including snowballs, a juggler and a stilt walker, will be at Penn Station to help kick off the holiday season tomorrow, Wednesday, November 17, from 4 to 7 PM. Come to the Long Island Rail Road's specially decorated 34th Street Corridor for special prizes and offers. Penn Station is ready to be your gateway to the Holiday Capital of the World!

The LIRR can help you save money this holiday season with our packages to Wintuk at the Theater at Madison Square Garden®, in its final year of performance, and the Radio City Christmas Spectacular®. These offers are the best around and include both discounts on select performances and free rail tickets. Check out the details and see our other "Deals & Getaways" on our website, www.mta.info/lirr.

Stop by Penn Station's 34th Street Corridor for free samples and a chance to win some special prizes furnished by the participating sponsors:

- The Long Island Rail Road will be raffling off family four-packs of tickets to Wintuk and the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, as well as tickets to the Broadway shows Billy Elliot and Memphis.
- Spin our Holiday Prize Wheel to win pairs of tickets to the holiday shows, Tanger Deer Park Outlet Coupon vouchers, or other prizes such as tickets to NY SkyRide, Empire State Building Observatory, Gray Line Sightseeing Tours, Circle Line cruises or King Tut.
- Penn Station merchants Tracks Raw Bar & Grill, Jamba Juice, and Auntie Anne's Pretzels will provide free samples while supplies last.

New York City is the holiday capital of the world, and the LIRR can help you enjoy the sights of the season and save money while doing it!
