New Pascack Valley Line Schedule goes into Effect on June 20

On Sunday, June 20, new schedules for the Pascack Valley Line trains will reflect service changes necessitated by budget constraints.

In making these difficult decisions, Metro-North tried to affect the fewest number of customers and minimize negative effects.

The following train service changes will take place on the Pascack Valley Line:

- On weekday mornings the 4:56 am train from Spring Valley is discontinued;
- The 6:55 pm from Hoboken (6:47 PM from Penn Station-NY) is discontinued;
- The 5:29 am from Spring Valley will depart 10 minutes earlier at 5:19 am.
- The 6:32 pm from Hoboken (6:23 pm from Penn Station-NY) now departs 11 minutes later at 6:43 pm (6:36 pm from Penn Station-NY).

There are no changes on the Port Jervis Line.

New timetables are available in Hoboken Terminal, Secaucus, and Penn Station-NY, and at www.njtransit.com and on our schedules page on our website at www.mta.info.
