MTA Metro-North Railroad Plans Extra Service For Good Friday and Easter Sunday

Over the Easter weekend, Metro-North Railroad will operate a regular schedule with a few minor adjustments/additions on Good Friday, April 2, and Easter Sunday, April 4.

On Good Friday, April 2, we will operate a regular schedule with the following changes:

On the New Haven Line, an additional early afternoon train will depart Grand Central at 3:26 PM, stopping at Harlem-125th Street, Westport, Fairfield, Bridgeport, Stratford, Milford, New Haven, arriving there 5:05 PM. This train is listed in the current timetable.

Also, the 7:05 PM train departing Grand Central for New Haven will not operate.

On the Hudson Line, Additional trains will depart Grand Central at 3:25 PM (stopping at Harlem-125th Street and arriving at Croton-Harmon 4:07 PM) and 4:05 PM (stopping at Harlem-125th Street, Beacon, New Hamburg and arriving at Poughkeepsie at 5:37 PM). These trains are not listed in the current timetable

Also, the 5:30 PM and 5:33 PM trains will be combined into one train departing Grand Central Terminal at 5:33 PM, making all stops between Croton-Harmon and Poughkeepsie, where it arrives at 7:14 PM.

On Easter Sunday, April 4 on the New Haven Line we will run three additional inbound express trains in the afternoon/early evening departing from New Haven at 5:45 PM; 6:45 PM, and 7:45 PM. These trains are in the current timetable.
