MTA Metro-North Railroad Plans Slightly Reduced Schedule for Friday's Morning Rush

On Friday February 26, Metro-North will combine some trains and eliminate others during the morning rush hours in anticipation of significantly reduced ridership.

The details of the special AM peak plan are available on the web at www.mta.info.

A total of 23 trains will be canceled and combined with others, seven on the Hudson Line, seven on the Harlem Line and nine on the New Haven Line.

The trains selected were chosen to impact the fewest people. As a result of these changes, the maximum additional wait for the next train will be less than 15 minutes.

In addition, customers can expect minor delays due to slow boarding on snowy platforms.

Crews are working and will be working all night to clear platforms, stairs and walkways. Additionally track workers and signal maintainers are deployed to keep tracks and switches clear.
