New Café; Opens At The Larchmont Train Station

Commuters and residents of Larchmont have a new place to get great cup of coffee, espresso and a newspaper. Global Java II opens Monday January 18, at the Larchmont train station.

The beverage menu will feature latte, cappuccino, café; au lait, chai, regular Café; Americano and blended iced drinks. The food menu includes yogurt with granola and fruit, croissants, scones, biscotti, bagels and buttered rolls. Sundries, such as aspirin, candy and gum, also will be sold.

The concession is located in the waiting area on the inbound platform. Proprietor Sudhir Patel also has managed the coffee outpost at the Bronxville station with a loyal following of regular customers since 1991. He also has plans to open a café; at the Harrison Station.

The Larchmont Station was renovated and expanded in 2008 and boasts a 41-foot-long glass mosaic mural, "The Four Seasons," by Joy Taylor. The waiting area has available seating for café; patrons.

The 120-square-foot shop will offer a wide variety of pastries and light refreshments and will be open from 5 a.m. until at least 1:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

"The store will be open at 5 a.m. in all kinds of weather," Patel vowed. "I've never been late opening in Bronxville and I look forward to serving the people of Larchmont."
