

MTA Press Releases

Select Language | ▼

Press Release

August 5, 2010

NYC Transit

IMMEDIATE

Service Advisory for the Dominican Day Parade

This year's Dominican Day Parade will be held on Sunday, August 8 along the Avenue of the Americas. The parade kicks off at 1 p.m. at 36th Street and continues to 56th Street. The best way to join the festivities is by mass transit. Customers can take the D F N Q R and E to 34th Street-Herald Square, the D or F to 42nd Street-Bryant Park, the D F or E to 47th-50th Street-Rockefeller Center, the F or E to 57th Street-6th Avenue and the 7 to 5th Avenue. Some station entrances/exits may be temporarily closed by the New York City Police Department for crowd control.

Please note that this weekend, E service will operate from Jamaica Center in Queens, then travel along the F line to end at 34th Street-6th Avenue and the D will operate local service on 6th Avenue. The parade route will affect the following buses: M2, M3, M4, M5, M16, M31, M34, M42 and M57. Customers should look for posted detour signs.

For travel directions to this event, customers may call NYC Transit's Travel Information Center at 718 330 1234 or log on to www.mta.info.