SERVICE ADVISORY: Bus and Subway Delays/Detours During Presidential Visit to Manhattan

President Barack Obama is scheduled to visit Manhattan on Thursday, April 22, 2010. As a result, based on street closures (frozen zones) instituted by the U.S. Secret Service and the New York City Police Department, some local and express bus routes in Lower and Midtown Manhattan are expected to be either severely delayed or detoured between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m., especially the M1, M2, M3, M8, M9, M14, M21, M101, M102 and M103 routes. In addition, some subway station entrances/exits may be temporarily closed.

Customers are advised to give themselves extra travel time and may call NYC Transit's Travel Information Center at 718-330-1234 between 6:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. daily for help in planning their trips. Customers may also visit www.mta.info for current service status.
