MEDIA ADVISORY: MTA LIRR BREAKS GROUND ON 'GREEN' TRAIN WASH FACILITY IN BABYLON

WHEN: Friday, May 21 at 10:30 AM

WHAT: LIRR President Helena Williams will be joined by Babylon Village Mayor Ralph Scordino, State Senator Owen Johnson, State Assemblyman Phil Boyle and Suffolk County Legislator Wayne Horsley at press conference and groundbreaking ceremony for LIRR's new Babylon Train Wash Facility. The Babylon Train Wash's design boasts a "green" list of sustainable features, including architectural and structural, HVAC, plumbing, wash equipment and renewable energy. The project is funded by $25.5 million in federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) stimulus money through the Federal Transit Administration of the Department of Transportation.

WHERE: Parking Lot of the E. Donald Conroy Golf Course at Sumpwams Creek, 75 Cedar St., Babylon Village, adjacent to the LIRR right-of-way and the construction site.
