MEDIA ADVISORY: MTA LIRR UNVEILS 'GAP RAP' VIDEO; RAILROAD DOC TO PERFORM LATEST SAFETY AWARENESS MESSAGE

Long Island Rail Road President Helena Williams will introduce the railroad's latest effort to spread the word about gap safety at a news conference in Mineola this Thursday, July 15. The safety awareness message is contained in a new 'Gap Rap' video from the LIRR's Medical Director Dr. John Clarke. The LIRR produced video co-stars students from the Long Beach School District's Lindell School.

Dr. Clarke is a recognized musical composer of rap songs he calls "Health Hop." He was the winner last year of the U.S. Health Department's nationwide contest for the best H1N1 Flu public service announcement.

WHEN: Thursday, July 15, 11 AM

WHERE: LIRR Mineola Station, Front St. off of Mineola Blvd. in Mineola, NY

Media interested in attending are requested to contact the LIRR Press Office at 718-558-7301.

Copies of the new video will be available.
