Metro-North Combines Evening Trains Due to Low Ridership

Metro-North has a special Winter Weather Schedule this evening, Friday, February 26, because so many customers have already departed New York. Customers may experience some delays in service due to changes in service and the impact of the winter weather.

Customers are advised to check the web site <http://www.mta.info> for any service updates, to listen to news broadcasts and traffic reports before leaving office or home, and to listen for announcements at their station. For additional information, customers can contact Metro-North's 24-hour Customer Information Center at 212-532-4900. Following is a list of train cancellations and combinations.

Here is a list of train cancellations and combinations through 8 p.m. For the additional changes after 8 p.m. check the website.
