New Long Island Rail Road Timetables Go into Effect Monday, November 7

Remember Daylight Savings Time Ends At 2 AM Sunday, November 6

New Long Island Rail Road timetables go into effect Monday, November 7, bringing with them some temporary schedule adjustments for off-peak trains traveling to and from Long Beach to carry out prep work for the coming installation of new railroad ties. The following trains will be affected.

- Five eastbound trains scheduled to leave Penn Station at 9:38 AM, 10:39 AM, 11:39 AM, 12:39 PM and 1:39 PM will depart three minutes later and reach Long Beach three minutes later usual.
- Five westbound trains scheduled to leave Long Beach at 10:08 AM, 11:09 AM, 12:08 PM, 1:08 PM and 2:08 PM will depart three minutes earlier and arrive at Penn Station three minutes later an usual.

Also, the LIRR wants to remind its customers that Daylight Savings Times ends at 2 AM on Sunday, November 6 and clocks should be set back one hour.

Whenever possible, the LIRR schedules maintenance work for off-peak periods, such as midday during the week and on weekends, to minimize the impact on most LIRR customers who use the Railroad during the AM and PM rush hours. Customers using the LIRR on the branches affected by the maintenance work should allow extra travel time when planning a trip.
