Bus Service to Arthur Kill Correctional Facility Discontinued

New S55 and S74 Reroutes Begin

Due to the closure of the Arthur Kill Correctional Facility, MTA New York City Transit announced the S55 and S74 trips to the facility will end Friday, December 2. All following S74 trips will bypass the facility in both directions. The S55, which is a Monday to Friday service, will begin and end on Bloomingdale Road effective Monday, December 5.

On Monday, southbound S55 trips will terminate at a new stop on Bloomingdale Road, far side of Veterans Road East. Northbound, the S55 will leave the terminal stand on Bloomingdale Road turn right onto Arthur Kill Road, right onto Zebra Place, right onto Veterans Road West and then left onto Bloomingdale Road to the new first stop on Bloomingdale Road, near side of Veterans Road East. The two northbound and two southbound stops on Arthur Kill Road near the former correctional facility will be discontinued.

Customers may visit our website at www.mta.info to check for service changes or sign up for free email and text message alerts. In addition, customers may dial 511, the New York State travel information line, for MTA customer service and travel information. NYC Transit agents are available to provide assistance with your travel plans daily from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.
