SPECIAL TRAFFIC ADVISORY: Bike MS 2011 Event Sun., Oct. 2nd Means Traffic Diversions At Henry Hudson, Robert F. Kennedy Bridges And Brooklyn-Battery Tunnel

The Bike MS 2011 is being held on Sunday, Oct. 2nd. Closures will be in effect that may impact motorists who normally use the MTA's Robert F. Kennedy, Henry Hudson and Brooklyn-Battery Tunnel facilities.

Henry Hudson

7 a.m. to Noon: Closures of the Henry Hudson Parkway between the Moshulu Parkway to the bridge and Dyckman Street south to Battery Park via the West Side Highway means that drivers will not be able to access the bridge from the parkway.

Brooklyn-Battery Tunnel

7 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.: All traffic exiting the tunnel heading into Manhattan will be detoured north on West Street or through the Trinity Place exit which will remain open. The Battery Park underpass and southbound West Street will be closed.

RFK Bridge

7 a.m. to 11 a.m.: Traffic will not be able to access the RFK Bridge from the northbound FDR Drive as bikers make their way to the Harlem River Drive from the FDR. In addition, traffic exiting the RFK Harlem River lift span at 125th Street will not be able to access the entrance to the Harlem River Drive during this time period.
