MTA LIRR Transitioning Back To A Weekday Schedule

The LIRR has begun transitioning back to a regular weekday schedule. Due to the effects of significant ice build-up on the third rail, LIRR trains had been following a weekend timetable, as a reference for customers, throughout the morning of Wednesday, February 2, 2011. It included the addition of train service on the West Hempstead Branch and on the Main Line east of Ronkonkoma. The LIRR also added extra trains to the weekend timetable. The morning weekend timetable permitted the LIRR to keep de-icer train equipment out spraying anti-freeze on all tracks and as a result we were not left canceling trains.

Regular weekday schedules for each branch are resuming with the trains listed below.
