MTA Bridges and Tunnels Suspends Routine Maintenance Work For Labor Day Weekend Beginning Friday, Sept. 2nd At Noon

MTA Bridges and Tunnels will suspend all routine maintenance work at its seven bridges and two tunnels beginning Noon Fri., Sept. 2nd through the end of the morning rush on Tuesday, Sept. 6th to help smooth travel for those hitting the road for the Labor Day weekend.

In 2010, a total of nearly 3.1 million vehicles used MTA crossings over the Labor Day holiday from Friday through Monday.

Motorists are urged to use E-ZPass when they travel to save both time and gas. For more information about E-ZPass or to apply online visit: www.ezpassny.com or call 1-800 333-TOLL.
