The New York Transit Museum's gallery annex - located just off the Main Concourse in the Shuttle Passage next to the Station Master's Office - presents changing exhibitions throughout the year.

The Grand Central Holiday Train Show is a perennial favorite: Last year, over 150,000 people visited the train show, which features Lionel trains journeying through a miniature New York City from Grand Central to the North Pole.

This year's train show also will feature a companion exhibit of holiday covers from The New Yorker magazine. Since its founding in 1929, the iconic magazine has run festive covers celebrating the city's holiday rituals.

For the Holiday Train Show, the museum has extended hours through Dec. 23rd, Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. The museum is closed on Christmas and New Year's Day.
