LIRR'S Discount Package Deal Is Your Way to See Hit Off-Broadway Show "My Sinatra" with Cary Hoffman

Ride Free & Get $15 Off Show Tickets for Performances through February 26, 2012

Attention all Frank-ophials! MTA Long Island Rail Road is offering free round-trip rail travel to Manhattan and $15 off the price of a ticket to the sensational Frank Sinatra tribute, "My Sinatra," the show that has been wowing audiences at the Midtown Theater on W. 46th St.

The LIRR's package deal makes "My Sinatra" tickets – normally $75 and $55 – available for $60 and $40 for performances scheduled through February 26, 2012. Plus, you ride the LIRR for free! But you must purchase your "My Sinatra" ticket package by January 31, 2012.

Playwright and actor Cary Hoffman's passion for Sinatra and musical talent has yielded a popular PBS special, a 16-month performance series, and now, a brilliant Off-Broadway show. In "My Sinatra," Hoffman interweaves spot-on vocal renditions of classics with musings on his own life as well as Frank's to create a wholly unique, engrossing experience for Sinatra lovers and novices alike.

Purchase the LIRR's "My Sinatra"; package (discounted tickets and free round trip travel) online at OvationTix.com by entering the code LIRR15 or call 866-811-4111 and again mention the code LIRR15. The package can also be purchased at the theater box office, 163 W. 46th St. (between 6th and 7th Avenues).

Travel and Show Ticket Restrictions

The free rail tickets are valid on day of the show for any train arriving at Penn Station after 9:30 AM, or anytime on weekends, and returning on any eastbound train up until 4 AM the next day. Limit of 8 show tickets per order. Tickets are subject to availability and blackout dates may apply.

Phone/Internet tickets must be purchased 10 days in advance to receive rail tickets before your show. There is no refund value to any part of the package.
