

MTA Press Releases

Select Language | ▼

Press Release

June 29, 2011

NYC Transit

IMMEDIATE

Bx10 Rerouted in Kingsbridge

Temporary Detour Due to Construction on Goulden Avenue

MTA New York City Transit announced that effective Sunday, July 3, the Bx10 will be rerouted off Goulden Avenue in both directions due to construction on Goulden Avenue between Sedgwick Avenue and 205th Street.

Eastbound (towards Norwood-206th Street):

The Bx10 will take its regular route to Sedgwick Avenue and Goulden Avenue, via Sedgwick Avenue to West Mosholu Parkway South, stop at the Bx1/Bx28 bus stop at Mosholu Parkway South, made a right on Paul Avenue to 205th Street and back to the regular route.

Westbound (towards Riverdale-West 263rd Street):

The Bx10 will take the regular route to Paul Avenue and West 205th Street, continue on Paul Avenue and stop at the Bx1/Bx28 bus stop at Mosholu Parkway South, made a left on Mosholu Parkway South to Sedgwick Avenue, left on Sedgwick Avenue to continue on the regular route.

Customers may visit our website at www.mta.info for route and schedule information and consider signing up for free service emails and text message alerts. In addition, our Travel Information line may be reached at 718-330-1234 daily, between 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. for assistance with travel plans.