Sunday Schedule for Thanksgiving Day

Reduced Weekday Service on Friday

MTA Bus, Long Island Bus, Staten Island Railway, and New York City Transit buses and subways will operate on a Sunday schedule on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 24. The following day, Friday, November 25, service will operate on a weekday schedule with some exceptions.

There is no Limited Stop service in Staten Island on the S81, S86, S90, S91, S92, S94, S96 and S98 or in Queens on the Q6, Q25 and Q65. All other subways, local, limited, SBS and express buses will operate on a weekday schedule. There will be less service, especially during rush hours, on selected IRT subway lines and most bus routes due to expected lower ridership levels as fewer people are going to work or school.
