Service Advisory: Water Main Break to Impact Rush Hour Service on the A, B, C, and D Lines

Customers using A, B, C and D train service should expect severe service disruptions during the pm rush hour due to a water main break in the vicinity of 110th Street and Central Park West.

Both B and C train service are suspended from end to end. A train service is suspended between West 145th Street and 59th Street-Columbus Circle and D trains are not running between 161st Street-Yankee Stadium, in the Bronx and 34th Street-Herald Square in Manhattan.

Shuttle trains will serve customers traveling between 205th Street and 161st Street-Yankee Stadium on the Concourse line. Customers can utilize 4 train service to and from 161st Street. Shuttle trains will provide service to A line customers between 207th Street and 168th Street.

Yankee fans leaving this afternoon's game should utilize 4 train service where extra Manhattan-bound trains have been added terminating at Bowling Green. Metro-North Railroad will also cross honor tickets at the Yankees-E.153rd Street station on trains returning to Harlem-125th Street and Grand Central Terminal.

Work crews are on site at the location of the water main to pump out water covering tracks at stations from 103rd Street to 125th Street along Central Park West and St Nicholas Avenue. Four pumps are currently pumping 6,000 gallons of water a minute out of the system to restore service as soon as possible.
