Off Peak Busing On The Wassaic Branch Planned From April 4 Through April 29

MTA Metro-North Railroad customers who use the Wassaic branch of the Upper Harlem Line will be provided with bus service beginning Monday, April 4 during midday on weekdays and on Sundays so that workers can replace railroad ties and perform other track maintenance.

Buses will substitute for weekday trains in both directions beginning with the 9:29 AM train from Southeast to Wassaic and up to and including the 4:21 PM train from Wassaic arriving Southeast at 5:01 PM.

On Sundays from April 10 through May 1 (except Easter Sunday, April 24), buses will substitute for trains in both directions beginning with the 6:26 AM train from Wassaic to Grand Central Terminal and up to and including the 2:24 PM train from Wassaic arriving Southeast at 3:06 PM.

Buses will operate on train schedules. The busing will affect about 450 people on weekdays and about 350 on Sundays.
