"MTA Voter Shuttles" Will Carry Voters to Polls

Free Shuttle Buses to Operate on Staten Island, in Coney Island and in Rockaways

The Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) will operate special "MTA Voter Shuttles" on Tuesday, Nov. 6, to carry voters from damaged polling places to alternate sites established by the Board of Elections on Staten Island, in Coney Island and in the Rockaways.

The free Election Day shuttle buses will run every 15 to 20 minutes, in addition to other scheduled bus service in those areas.

The buses will be marked by "MTA Voter Shuttle" destination signs and will run from 5:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. to help voters, particularly those displaced by Hurricane Sandy, reach polling places.

MTA buses will also be dispatched to carry Board of Elections polling station workers from their Queens headquarters in Kew Gardens to their newly assigned polling stations in the three areas.

Routes for the "MTA Voter Shuttle" buses are described in the attached document.
