ADVISORY: MTA Fare and Toll Hearings Commence Tonight

The first of eight public hearings on the Metropolitan Transportation Authority's (MTA) fare and toll proposals will proceed as scheduled tonight at the NY Marriott at the Brooklyn Bridge located at 333 Adams Street in Downtown Brooklyn. The hearing will begin at 5p.m. In-person registration to speak will begin at 4 p.m. and remain open until 8 p.m. Oral testimony is limited to 3 minutes for each speaker. The venue is accessible to the mobility impaired. Interpreter services will be available for the hearing impaired.

The hearing in Farmingdale, also originally scheduled for tonight, has been postponed due to a lack of power at the venue.

The video-conference venue originally scheduled for tomorrow at 3 Stone Street has been relocated to the following location:

Thursday, Nov.8 — 8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

NYC Transit 180 Livingston Street Conf. Rm. 4041, 4th. Fl. Brooklyn, NY

Customers may visit this satellite facility on the dates and times listed below where comments will be videotaped. All comments will be transcribed and made part of the permanent record of these hearings. Please note there is a 3 minute time limit for each individual's videotaped session and there will be no question and answer period.
