MTA Service on Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) service will operate on special schedules in observance of Martin Luther King Jr. Day on Monday, Jan. 16.

New York City Subway and Staten Island Railway

The New York City Subway and the Staten Island Railway will operate on a regular weekday schedule. There is no special Get Away service on the Staten Island Railway.

Buses in New York City

All buses operated by MTA New York City Transit and the MTA Bus Company will operate on a regular weekday schedule with these exceptions.

- Nine limited-stop bus routes on Staten Island will not operate: S81, S84, S86, S90, S91, S92, S94, S96, and S98. Local service on these routes will continue to operate.
- There will be no limited-stop service on four bus routes in Queens (although local service will continue to run on these routes): Q6, Q21, Q25 and Q65.
- The S89 and S93, as well as all other local, express, limited-stop and Select Bus Service buses will run their normal weekday schedules.

All other local, express, limited-stop and Select Bus Service buses, as well as subways, will run the normal weekday routes during their normal weekday hours, with slightly longer wait times on some routes.

Long Island Rail Road

The LIRR will operate on a holiday schedule with extra trains added. There will be 37 extra eastbound and westbound trains, to and from Penn Station, added on various branches to accommodate holiday travelers. Off-peak fares will also be in effect all day.

For more details, please see the attached press release from the LIRR.

Metro-North Railroad

Metro-North Railroad will operate on a Saturday schedule with 32 additional trains as indicated in the current Harlem, Hudson and New Haven Line timetables. Off peak fares apply all day.
