Metro-North Gets You to the Yankees' American League Division Playoffs

Convenient Service on all Three Lines

Once again, the Yankees are in the American League Playoffs, this time taking on the Baltimore Orioles!

The Yankees return to their home turf, after a two-game battle in Orioles territory, to play the final three games at Yankee Stadium on Wed., Oct. 10th, Thurs., Oct. 11th; and Friday, Oct. 12th. The stadium will open at 5:30 p.m. for ticketholders.

Diehard Yankees fans know that there is no better way to get to Yankee Stadium than by taking Metro-North's fast and convenient "Train to the Game" service.

On the Hudson Line all southbound trains stop at Yankees-East 153rd Street for a couple hours before games and there is ample northbound service after all games.

On the Harlem Line there is one Yankee Clipper, a 3:58 p.m. out of Southeast arriving at 5:20 p.m.

On the New Haven Line there is one Yankee Clipper leaving New Haven at 4:45 p.m. and arriving at 6:24 p.m.

The GCT/Harlem-125th St. Shuttle operates continuously about every 20 minutes to and from the Stadium.

Train schedules for Thursday, Oct. 11th, and Friday, Oct. 12th, are to be determined.
