My Sinatra

One man's dream through another man's music. Cary Hoffman turns his celebrated PBS Special into a biographical, often hilarious, and poignant one-man musical play about his love and idolization for his hero Frank Sinatra and the perils of wanting to become somebody else.

Hoffman captivates the audience with his intimate journey of what it was like growing up fatherless with three musician uncles, who played on some of Sinatra's greatest recordings, turning Sinatra into a fantasy father. Hoffman authentically sings Sinatra "Dead On!" (The New York Times), as he weaves in over 20 classic Sinatra songs, creating a musical score about his lifelong obsession.

Get a free round-trip rail ticket and save $15 on show tickets. Tickets must be purchased by January 31, 2012. The show runs through Feb. 26.
