Kappock Street Exit Closure From Bronx-bound Henry Hudson Bridge Extended Until Wed., Aug. 29th

The Kappock Street exit from the Bronx-bound upper level of the Henry Hudson Bridge will remain closed to traffic until Wed., Aug. 29th for necessary construction work.

The work is being extended a few days as contractors continue excavating an old walkway and rehabilitating a 1930s-era drain.

Motorists should continue following signs to the detour at 232nd Street.
