Hugh L. Carey Tunnel Will Have One Tube Closed Overnight For Next Three Weeks

One Lane Will Be Open In Each Direction In Remaining Tube

One tube at the Hugh L. Carey Tunnel will be closed overnight for the next three weeks beginning Monday May 6 for continuing repair work from Superstorm Sandy.

Motorists should allow extra time when traveling into or out of Manhattan.

One tube will be closed nightly from 9 p.m. through 5 a.m. Monday night through Friday morning from May 5th through the morning of May 24th.

The remaining tube will have one lane operating in either direction.
