MTA Long Island Rail Road Offering Extra Service & Reduced Fares for the Thanksgiving Holiday Weekend

Off-Peak & Family Fare Pricing in Effect Thursday, Friday, Saturday & Sunday

For extended Thanksgiving holiday weekend, MTA Long Island Rail Road is ready with additional train service to get travelers where they want to go and off-peak ticket pricing they will find very attractive.

Extra Trains for the Extended Four Day Weekend

The extra trains start rolling on Thanksgiving Eve, Wednesday, November 26, with additional afternoon eastbound trains to handle the expected early getaway rush home. On Thanksgiving Day, there will be extra trains to get you to the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade and extra trains to get you home when the festivities end. There will be extra trains on Saturday, November 29 and Sunday, November 30 as well, making travel to and from New York City, a snap for shopping, dining and entertainment.

Off-Peak Fares in Effect Thursday thru Sunday

As a holiday bonus, the LIRR will offer tickets at off-peak prices over the four-day weekend from Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 27 through Sunday, November 30. Additionally, the Railroad's Family Fare Discount will be in effect all four days. That means kids ages 5-11 (limit of 4 children) can ride one-way for $1 when accompanied by a fare paying parent or guardian. However, those tickets must be purchased before you board the train. Weekly and monthly ticket holders pay just for the kids and, as always, children under 5 ride free.

Regular Weekday Schedule on Black Friday

On Black Friday, November 28, one of the busiest shopping days of the year, the LIRR will run on a regular weekday schedule, but tickets will be sold at the lower, off-peak fares.
