LIRR Track Work on Weekend of Oct. 25-26 Means Reduced Service or Schedule Changes on 7 Branches

Hempstead, Port Jeff, Oyster Bay, Ronkonkoma, Montauk, Long Beach & Far Rock Affected

Track work scheduled for the weekend of Saturday, October 25 and Sunday, October 26 will mean schedule changes and reduced train service on the Hempstead, Huntington/Port Jefferson, Oyster Bay, Ronkonkoma, Montauk, Long Beach and Far Rockaway branches. Long Island Rail Road workers will be carrying out switch renewal work in the Queens Village area and off-loading continuous welded rail between Hicksville and Syosset for future installation.

“The track work scheduled for the weekend of October 25-26 is a critical part of an ongoing effort to ensure our infrastructure remains in a state of good repair,” said LIRR President Patrick A. Nowakowski. “The reliability of the LIRR depends on it.”

Special timetables with all of the time changes for each of the affected branches for the weekend of October 25-26 are available at stations and terminals and can also be found on the LIRR website at www.mta.info/lirr. The significant service changes scheduled for that weekend include:
