FASTRACK Comes to the F Line

No F Service between B'way-Lafayette St and York St.

On Monday, February 24, for the first time, MTA New York City Transit brings FASTRACK to the {F} line in Lower Manhattan. For four consecutive weeknights from Monday, February 24, to early Friday morning, February 28, {F} trains will not stop at B'way-Lafayette St, 2 Av, Delancey St, East Broadway, and York St. F trains are rerouted via the A line in both directions between W 4 St and Jay St-MetroTech.

Travel alternatives: Free shuttle buses, D and J trains provide alternate service.

In Manhattan:

1. Buses operate between B'way-Lafayette St and East Broadway making station stops at 2 Av and Delancey St.
2. Use shuttle buses to connect with D service at B'way-Lafayette St.
3. Transfer between D and F trains at W 4 St.
4. Additional connections with F service at Fulton St are available via the 4 local (to/from Bleecker St) and the J (to/from Delancey St/Essex St).

In Brooklyn:

1. Free shuttle buses run between York St and Jay St-MetroTech, where F service is available.
2. Transfer between free shuttle buses and F trains at Jay St-MetroTech.
3. York St customers may also use the High St A station, where F service is available.

FASTRACK has been designed around the careful determination that there is adequate alternate means of transportation, including enhanced services along some bus lines during work periods. Alternative transportation options will be detailed in announcements and posters on trains, in stations and on selected buses; brochures will be available in both English and Spanish. Information on this FASTRACK is available on the web.

FASTRACK was introduced in January 2012, devoting four straight weeknights to perform maintenance work in tunnels, stations and on tracks, completely suspending service within a given line segment for a seven-hour period between 10 p.m. and 5 a.m., allowing an army of maintenance workers to perform dozens of tasks.

Our next FASTRACK overnight closure will be on the N Q R at all Manhattan stations beginning Monday night March 3, and ending early Friday morning March 7.
