RFK Bridge Harlem River Lift Span Will Have Intermittent Closures This Friday

MTA Bridges and Tunnels will be performing test lifts of the Harlem River Lift Span on the RFK Bridge on Friday, December 4, from 12:01 a.m. until 5:00 a.m. This will require full, intermittent closures of the Manhattan Span in both directions for approximately 20 minutes at a time.

Motorists will experience delays and should consider an alternate route.
