Queens Midtown Tunnel Manhattan-bound Tube Closed Weeknights

Eight-Week Closure Begins on August 31; Two-Way Traffic in Other Tube

Starting Monday night, August 31, the Manhattan-bound (north) tube of the Queens Midtown Tunnel will be closed during weekday overnight hours for eight weeks of Sandy restoration work. One lane will remain open in each direction in the other tube.

The closures will take place nightly between 10:30 p.m. to 5:30 a.m., Monday through Thursday. On Fridays, the closures will take place from 11 p.m. until 8 a.m. Saturday.

Note that the north tube closures will be suspended for Labor Day weekend and other upcoming holidays.

Motorists should allow extra time and use an alternate route if possible.
