MTA Police Issue Description of Suspect Wanted for Robberies at Grand Central Terminal Store

Ask Public for Help Apprehending Suspect

The MTA Police Department has issued a descriptive flier of a man wanted for two robberies at the Grand Central Terminal Rite that occurred on August 28 and October 12 and asks for the public's help identifying the suspect.

On Monday, August 28, at 12:10 p.m., the male suspect, approximately 30-35 years old and between 5' 6" - 5' 9," stole merchandise from the Rite Aid at Grand Central Terminal. When confronted by store security, the suspect brandished a hammer, threatened the security agent with it, and then fled the scene. On Thursday, October 12, it's believed the suspected returned to the store and stole merchandise a second time, and slashed the neck of the store security agent who attempted to apprehend him. The suspect carried a distinctive knapsack with the "Tahl Propp" insignia on it.

Anyone with information about this robbery suspect is asked to contact the MTA Police at: 212-340-2505, and reference: case #17-17187

SEEKING TO IDENTIFY THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUAL

The MTA Police is looking for assistance in identifying the suspect involved in a Robbery Investigation. On Monday August 28, 2017 at 1210 hours, the suspect entered the Rite Aid Store in Grand Central Terminal where he stole merchandise. When the Loss Prevention Officers attempted to recover the merchandise this suspect displayed a hammer and threatened the Loss Prevention Agent with it.

On Thursday October 12, 2017, this same suspect returned to the store where he stole merchandise for a second time and fled from the store. This time when he was confronted by a Loss Prevention Agent, the suspect slashed the Agent on his neck where he sustained an injury. Attempts have been made to identify the suspect with no results. The suspect is pictured with a distinctive knapsack with the "Tahl Propp" insignia displayed on it.

Anyone who can identify the individual is asked to contact MTA Police at 212-340-2505. Please refer to Case #17-17187
